SUBCONTRACT INSURANCE INDEMNIFICATION

To the fullest extent permitted by the law, the subcontractor shall indemnify and hold harmless the owner, the General Contractor and the architect/Engineer and their agents and employees from and against all claims, damages, losses and expenses, including but not limited to attorneys fees, arising out of, relating to, or resulting from performances of the work and or subcontractors operations under this agreement, including but not limited to claim, damage, losses or expense (1) attributable to bodily injury, sickness, disease or death or to injury to or destruction of tangible property (other than the work itself) including the loss of use resulting therefrom and (2) caused in whole or in part by negligent act or omission of the Subcontractor, and Sub-Subcontractor, anyone directly or indirectly employed by any of them or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable, regardless of whether or not it is caused in part by a party indemnified hereunder. Such obligations shall not be construed to limit or otherwise reduce to any other right or obligation of indemnity, which would otherwise exist as to any party or person, described in this paragraph.

In any and all claims against the Owner, the General Contractor or the Architect/Engineer or any of their agents or employees, by any employee of the Subcontractor, any Sub-Subcontractor, anyone directly or indirectly employed by Subcontractor, its Subcontractors or suppliers, or anyone for whose acts any of them may be liable, the indemnification obligation under this paragraph shall not be limited in any way by any limitation on the amount or type of damages, compensation or benefits payable by or for the Subcontractor or any Sub-subcontractor workers or workmen compensation acts, disability benefit acts, or other employee benefit act.
